EARTHQUAKE! Set atop a skyscraper, ALL SAINTS' video for the forthcoming single 'Under The Bridge' could be seen as a comment on the seismic nature of their fame. Chances are, though, it's just some 'cracking' special effects. A cinema version of the clip – extended to include the B-side, a cover of LaBelle's disco classic 'Lady Marmalade' – will be shown before Jackie Brown and Scream 2, with sponsorship proceeds going to All Saints' charity of choice – Breakthrough Breast Cancer.
