

Record company

Sony

Commissioner

Marisa Hine

Production company

Battle Cruiser

Harry's House

27/29 Beak Street

London W1F 9RU, UK

T: +44 20 7025 7500

F: +44 20 7025 7501

email

firstnamesurname@

battlecruiser.co.uk

Director

Philippe André

Producer

Dominic Willox

Director of*Photography

Robert Papais

Post-production company

FrameStore

9 Noel Street

London W1V 4AL, UK

T: +44 20 7208 2600

F: +44 20 7208 2626

email

firstname.lastname@

framestore.co.uk

Editor

Richard Orrick,

Whitehouse

Flame Artist

Stephane Allander

English

While surfing the web, director André pondered 'what would happen if we were on the internet physically and a modem was trying to connect us?' This thought is effectively brought to life in this surreal video, featuring a man's frustration at the increasing lack of control in his life and his eventual descent into madness.

André identified six stages of madness which the actor portrays. His pixilation is given depth using a new plug-in created by FrameStore.

campaign
SCREEN #26 12:01